

6516208320.txt

Competition is what makes this country great. By stiffling competition you limit choice. I choose XM because of the lousy local programming. Don't take away my right to listen to what I want. Remember, elections are just around the corner and it is the people of this country that you took office to represent, not lobbyist and special interest groups.